

Pedagogy Playtime:

Reading Between the Lines

A Summer Book Club to study the art of teaching practices

ped·a·go·gy

'pedə,gājē,-,gägē/

noun

1. the method and practice of teaching, esp. as an academic subject or theoretical concept.

BOOK 1: The Month of May
Dr. Laura Rendón (UTSA)

You are cordially invited to participate in Pedagogy Playtime's 1st Summer Book Club:

Reading Between the Lines

Every month we will intensely study the art of teaching practices from a variety of perspectives. We begin with Dr. Laura Rendón's Sentipensante Pedagogy. Summer Book Club meets bi-monthly. Your commitment to participate will earn you:

A Monthly Book

Free T-Shirt

End-of-Summer Stipend<sup>1</sup>

Certificate of Participation

...and great conversation!

"What is the experience of creating a teaching and learning dream (pedagogic vision) based on wholeness and consonance, respecting the harmonious rhythm between the outer experience of intellectualism an rational analysis and the inner dimension of insight, emotion, and awareness?" – Dr. Rendón

SPONSORED BY:

SPACE IS LIMITED FOR THE BOOK CLUB -RESERVE YOUR SPOT TODAY!

Contact: Dr. Candace Zepeda, Director of QUEST

ckzepeda@lake.ollusa.edu

<sup>1</sup> Stipend will be contingent on completing summer reading series and will be disbursed for a July payment.